

“In our lives and in human history, we cannot see God’s face but only see the backside of God’s glory.”

WESTERN SPIRE

APRIL 2025

What is it going to feel like to sit with God for a conversation like we sit at a table with our significant other? I am not talking about taking a moment to pray and leave, as we normally do. I am not talking about having a sense of peace, joy, and connection with God either, because it still focuses on my feelings, not on the moment. Rather, I am talking about having a time of experiencing God up close and personal, as if we see God face to face and feel soaked in the presence of God. In such a moment of encountering God, are we going to fully enjoy God’s nearness with a profound sense of reverence, respect and wonder, or it is more of a blend of fear and awe and will we even beg God to leave us, as Peter said to Jesus in Luke 5, “Please leave me, I am a sinful man”?

Fortunately, and unfortunately, nobody has ever seen God so closely because we live in a different dimension from the dimensions of God. We don’t have the ability to see beyond three dimensions, even though the fourth dimension can exist in our imaginations. God’s dimensions are beyond our comprehension because God exists in BOTH physical and spiritual realms. God is BOTH transcendent and immanent, BOTH universal and particular and BOTH living from everlasting to everlasting and moment by moment. God is BOTH the creator of all things, and the one intimately involved in the lives of people individually and collectively. We simply live in the dimension of either/or and are never able to understand the dimensions of God’s realities of BOTH.

Like many of us, Moses wanted to be convinced of God’s favor upon him in Exodus 33. As God was angry with the Israelites for making a golden calf and calling it their new god, God said to Moses, “I will let your people go into the Promised Land, but I am not going with them.” Moses said to God, “How can anyone believe that you appointed these people as your people to display your glory, if you don’t go with us?” God was finally persuaded by Moses and promised him to continuously lead the people into the land. Then, Moses sought confirmation from God as a sealing of the terms of the agreement and he said, “Please show me your glory.” If you watched the movie, “Jerry McGuire,” it was his way of saying to God, “Show me the money”.

What is interesting to me is what God said to Moses who wanted to see God’s actual glory, not just a representation form of it, “You may see my goodness pass in front of you. But you cannot see my glory because no one can see my glory and live. You will be able to see my back only after my glory passes by.”

In our lives and in human history, we cannot see God’s face but only see the backside of God’s glory. After all things happen in our lives, we may be able to see the backside of God’s glory and say, “Oh, it was God who did make it happen!” or “It could have been worse and we could have been irretrievably destructed, but God saved us from the worst scenario in the situation.”

How about human history? After daunting tasks of human society end with successful or unsuccessful consequences, we often find God's hand that worked in the situations to change the status quo. In any monumental transformation in history, no paradigm shift didn't happen without growing pains. In American modern history, for example, the emancipation of slavery, women's suffrage, and the Civil Rights Act were signed into law, not because all the people including the Christians in those days supported the changes unanimously (in fact, it was the opposite), but because they somehow became law and everybody accepted the new realities, even unpleasantly or inevitably. There might be 10 reasons why and how such a shift was possible, but there should be 100 reasons why and how they might not have happened if any little thing had gone wrong. Albert Einstein said it in a secular manner, "Coincidence is God's way of remaining anonymous." But I call it "the backside of God's glory" that made such changes possible in the world.

In April, we will continue to have our Lenten journey. We will also have Palm Sunday to enter Passion Week, which culminates in Easter Sunday. With all these church calendar events, I want you to know that they are not just recurring events that come back every year. I hope and pray that April helps us learn about God revealing God's self, not in power and strength as we normally expect from God, but in the most self-sacrificial way on the cross. I also hope and pray that we all can find the backside of God's glory in our lives and in the life of the world in which we live, so that we understand the meaning of God's victorious glory that rather chooses the meek and the weak to shame the wise and the strong (1 Corinthians 1:27).

Amen.

Peace of Christ,

1 Peter 5:6-7 "Humble yourself, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that on the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you."

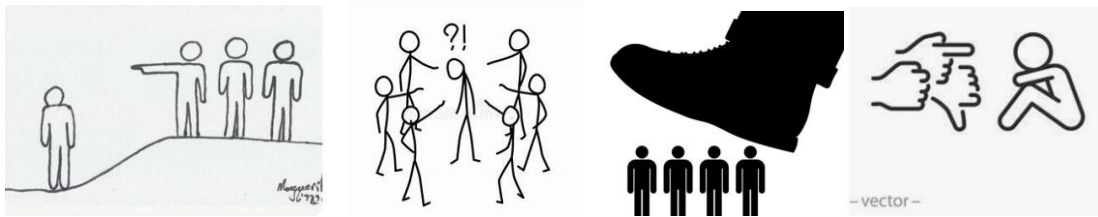

When we humble ourselves to God, we are given an armor to cope with evil and persecution...
Salvation; Justice; Truth; Faith; Spirit; and Peace

When the thundercloud of anxiousness lays heavy on you what do you do? Do you feel you are persecuted? As Christians, what do we do? Do we talk to God? Can God help?

The Women's Circle gathered today to discuss what persecution is, who feels persecuted, how do others persecute and finally, how we can cope. We started by defining what it is: Shame; pushed down as an on-going state of being; unrelenting oppression ~ hostility and ill-treatment, especially based of ethnicity / minority, religion or sexual orientation of political beliefs.

Could these images represent you or someone you know?

Everyone is persecuted to some degree. The more one might feel persecuted, the more our relationships, work and overall quality of life are at risk, leaving individuals with a feeling of isolation and powerlessness. Debilitating. An explosion of emotions.

It's really difficult to lift our worries, anxieties, and persecutions up to the Lord. It's difficult to release any power or control we may hold that might offer us a sense of power. Instead of allowing the concerns to eat our soul and our spirit, we can trust the Lord to sustain us. Humility and trust in the Lord – Humility is so desirable because of the marvelous thing it does for us; It creates in us a capacity for the closest intimacy with God. [Monica Baldwin]

seeking Help for Child Care During Worship

Question: Would you think about volunteering to help provide Child Care so a young family may attend worship?

There has been lots of discussion on having Child Care available for any visitors interested in coming to worship. It is thought that if WPC advertises a Place for Children that we may attract younger families.

The CE Committee has spent time rearranging rooms to help with this process, and the Property Committee has spent time working to provide TV screens for the worship to be watched live by the childcare providers.

Many ideas are being discussed. However, the first priority is to have volunteers and begin to have people to help.

SO, I am seeking 2 people each week to help. Then I will advertise the coverage. I will make a rotating schedule with any willing volunteers.

Family Promise® of Wayne County

Building community, strengthening lives.

Update 3-19-2025

Today we had a coordinators' meeting at the Day Center in Lyons. Several items were reported...

1. Lyons has not allowed more than 1 family to be in the Day Center and seems to throw up roadblocks to FP's continued participation in the community.
2. The FP Office is being moved to the United Methodist Church in Newark, the first week in April. VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED FOR THE OFFICE MOVE.
3. The Day Center will be put up for sale.
4. Items will be sold off at a yard sale on April 8, 9, and 10. VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED FOR THE YARD SALE.
5. The last of the 62 families who have been in the program will move out of the Day Center on April 1.
6. FP will continue to contact and provide care for all families who have graduated from the program in the last year.
7. All families will continue to be contacted every 6 months as has been the program procedure.
8. The staff has been working ½ time since February.
9. The ROTH (Roof Over Their Head) program will continue and help families stop evictions.
10. FP has about $60,000 for operations. The donations for the purchase of an apartment building continue to be separate from operations money.

11. FP's yearly budget is about $200,000. This is not enough for most grant applications. If Ontario County and the Greater Rochester Area join together for grant writing, the $750,000 budget threshold would be reached.
12. FP needs to look forward for 2-6 years for funding rather than the 3-6 months as has been happening in Wayne County.
13. FP will continue to have fundraisers to grow their bank balance to $200,000. Donations from churches, civic organizations, and individuals continue to be welcomed. Yvonne will come and speak at gatherings to get the word out about FP and what is happening.
14. FP will look for property in Newark, or elsewhere in the county, for a store front and apartments above that can become the home of Family Promise of Wayne County, NY.
15. At this time, there are no families housed by Family Promise of Wayne County. But it is far from dead in the water, as the organization continues to find ways to continue serving homeless families and to make a difference in their lives.

Continuing and New Business

Sunday School News- Cim shared that the Easter cards will be made this coming Sunday. She plans to have the Youth Group participate in cards as well. We discussed making Easter cards in 2026 earlier, like in February so we aren't conflicting with sports and musicals.

Easter Bunny Breakfast- April 12- Cim will advertise on Facebook. The sausage is labeled in the freezer. A big thank you to Conrad for donating the sausage. Jody will cook the sausage again this year. Cim reported that her mom and sister will donate some money that we can use for decor, take out bins, and to fill the cash box for change. A big thank you to them for helping us start! Emily will check the donation sign-up sheet and purchase what else is needed. We will set up on Friday, April 11 at 3:45.

Toddler Time- Cim shared that numbers continue to be big. Rachel has decided to extend her maternity leave and will start Toddler Time at the PCC in the fall.

Little Froggies Daycare Update- After Emily and Cim met with Gary and Phil our biggest news to report is that the Sunday School classroom does not need to move. (Hooray!) It may become a shared space in the future, but for now we are set to use the room. Property has great plans for Sunday School/CE storage spaces.

Camp Whitman Board- Cim shared that staffing is going well, but some international counselors have decided not to come for the summer of 2025. A dinner will occur in Chili on May 10. There will be a chicken BBQ at camp during Memorial Day weekend for a fundraiser.

Girl Scout Sunday- March 16. The girls will lead the children's sermon. Girl Scout cookies will be served for coffee hour. Emily has been in contact with the worship team to make sure we are ready for the Girl Scouts.

Palm Sunday Parade- Children participating in the parade will meet in the hallway by the office at 9:55. The parade will take place during the prelude.

VBS- The True North- we are going to join forces with the Mission team and run a cereal drive during VBS to honor Lois Daniel's birthday and her lifetime cereal donations. We are so excited to support this cause.

Youth Group- Pastor Hodong, Cim, and Lisa P are excited with how the Youth Group is taking off. They have had groups of 4 to 8 youth. Different youth are joining each week with three regulars.

Nursery- We hope to have the downstairs nursery up and running in September. Only one person reached out to Jody to volunteer, so please consider. If you are able to volunteer your time, please reach out to Jody. We discussed opening up the nursery for Easter Sunday.

June Youth Service- June 1- we will honor senior Sammie Teeter. Emily will order the gift. Cim has an idea to gift some of our new Sunday School students a Bible. The theme of the service is Block Party (Lego). Emily M is working hard on the script for the service. Emily will reach out to the worship team to let them know we will not need coverage for Pastor Hodong that day.

Next meeting: April 8, 2025 at 7:00 pm

Respectfully Submitted,
Emily Hunt
